ENTERTAINMENT

FULL BIO

People often ask, “When was your first show?” Jason responds, “3rd Grade”. It was his reward for having been quiet the whole day. As he began impersonating Pee Wee Herman, as well as the teachers throughout the school, Jason’s classmates and teachers laughed til they cried, and he knew he wanted to entertain people from the start.

In the year 2000, Jason was officially “discovered” by NCAA Basketball Coach of the Year, and former BYU Basketball Coach, Tony Ingle, who suggested Jason work on his talents and introduced him to Chris Poulos, former manager of the successful folk singing group, The 3D’s. Chris helped Jason hone his impressions into a show and Jason began working throughout Utah. It wasn’t long before Jason’s father, John Hewlett, facilitated the contact to land an audition for the Godfather of Impersonators, Johnny Stuart, Founder of the world famous Las Vegas “Legends In Concert”.

Jason began work for “Legends In Concert” in 2001, one week after marrying his beautiful bride, Tami, where he performed on stage impersonating Ricky Martin and Elton John for the touring show. In 2002 Jason began focusing on his one-man show for Corporate America, catering to the family-friendly entertainment need with his combination of parodies and silly, bizarre, spot-on music impressions. His career took off as a result of word of mouth referrals, and the rest is history. Since then Jason has maintained an unprecedented climb up the “corporate ladder” as an independent, one-man show Entertainer under the business name Jason Hewlett Entertainment.

He is the multi-year winner of the prestigious “Best of State in Entertainment Award” in his home state of Utah, he has performed in every major casino in Las Vegas, and has headlined theaters, amphitheatres, and cruise ships throughout the world. Having performed for over 2,000 events and more than 1 Million audience members, Jason’s show and speaking is requested time and again by his loyal clientele.

He is the author of “Signature Moves: How To Stand Out in a Sit Down World”, his album of original music, “Good To Me”, can be found on iTunes, while families worldwide enjoy his over 100 YouTube videos and DVD’s “Live in Las Vegas” and “Father Time”.

Jason is a member of the National Speaker’s Association, and was awarded the Certified Speaking Professional in 2014, of which only 5% of speakers receive, for his hilarious, entertaining, and inspiring Keynote Speaking. He also acts as Master of Ceremonies for the most important events in America. Jason is considered the answer to hosting and performing a flawless event.

Jason has presented to over 250,000 youth in the past decade and changed many young lives in the process. In 2016 he was awarded the “The Outstanding Eagle Award” by the Boy Scouts of America. Jason’s proudest accomplishment can be found within the walls of his home, with his wife and children, and his family’s shared faith in God. Jason’s goal as an Entertainer, Speaker, Educator, and Philanthropist continues to be the same as when he began: Fill the world with joy, humor, music, inspiration, and entertainment the whole family can enjoy together.
